An Inverness officer responded to Hoffman Estates to assist that department with a burglary investigation in the 4200 block of Forest Glen. The officer responded and assisted in the search of the area.

January 14, 2024

Inverness officers responded to a burglary in the 600 block of Braeburn Road. The residents returned home to find the garage door and entry door to the house open. Officers checked the house upon arrival finding no one inside. Entry was most likely made by forcing open a side door after the offenders attempted to remove the electrical service meter outside. Once inside they ransacked the home removing numerous items before leaving. The matter is under investigation.
